

RULES OF THE COURT OF APPEAL, SECOND CIRCUIT
SUPPLEMENTING UNIFORM RULES OF LOUISIANA COURTS OF APPEAL

Rule 16. Time to Respond to Non-Expedited Writ

When an application for supervisory writs has been filed, a party has the right to respond. However, the court may adjudicate the application at any time after receipt, with or without the benefit of a response. If within fifteen days after the date on which a non-expedited application for supervisory writs has been filed, a response has not been filed, it shall be presumed that a response will not be forthcoming. No extensions of time to file a response will be granted.
