No. 639,123

Before STEPHENS, HUNTER, and MARCOTTE, JJ.

ORDER

The applicant, Alfred White, has appealed the trial court's July 1, 2024, judgment denying his motion for summary judgment. However, an appeal does not lie from the court's refusal to render any judgment on the pleading or summary judgment. La. C.C.P. art. 968.

It is well established that an appeal may not be taken from a trial court's denial of a motion for summary judgment. Schaefer v. Lynch, 406 So. 2d 185 (La. 1981); Magill v. Owen Const. Co., 434 So. 2d 520 (La. Ct. App. 1983). Therefore, the denial of the applicant's motion for summary judgment is not an appealable judgment, notwithstanding the trial court's order granting the appeal.

Finding that the judgment is not subject to appeal, on this Court's own motion we hereby dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction.

Shreveport, Louisiana, this 23 day of April 2025.
