WRIT GRANTED; REMANDED WITH INSTRUCTIONS.

The applicant, the State of Louisiana, through the Board of Supervisors of the University of Louisiana System (“the Board of Supervisors”), seeks supervisory review of a ruling from the Office of Workers’ Compensation, granting a motion for treating physician and exception of prematurity in part and granting an exception of insufficient service without ordering the plaintiff to execute proper service. The writ is granted. The ruling granting the exception of insufficient service is maintained and in light of that ruling, all other rulings were absolutely null due to the lack of sufficient citation and service. La. C.C.P. art. 1201. The trial court’s rulings as to all but the exception of insufficient service are vacated. The matter is remanded to the Workers’ Compensation court with instructions to order the plaintiff to effect proper citation and service on the State, through the Board of Supervisors for the University of Louisiana System, the governor, and the attorney general. La. R.S. 23:1312. Deferred costs in the amount of $181.00 are assessed against Daniel Tedeton. La. R.S. 13:4521.
