Before STONE, COX, and MARCOTTE, JJ.

WRIT GRANTED FOR PERFECTION OF APPEAL.

The applicant, the State of Louisiana, seeks supervisory review of the trial court's March 6, 2025, oral ruling and March 7, 2025, written ruling granting Eric Nabors' post-conviction relief claim that he was denied his right to testify at trial, and ordering a new trial. La. C. Cr. P. art. 930.4(F) grants the State the right to a suspensive appeal of the ruling granting Nabors' application for post-conviction relief and ordering a new trial. The State's notice of intent to seek supervisory review can be considered a timely motion for a suspensive appeal, and under Shows v. Shows, 434 So. 2d 1090 (La. 1983), the trial court's order fixing the time for filing is hereby treated as an order granting a suspensive appeal. Accordingly, this writ is hereby granted and remanded to the district court for perfection of the suspensive appeal.
