WRIT GRANTED AND MADE PEREMPTORY.

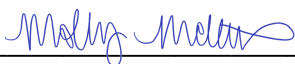

Applicants Luv N' Care, Ltd., Luv 'N Care International, Inc., North American Land Corporation Development, Joseph Herman Hakim, Nouri Edward Hakim, Monroe Manufacturing, Inc., Control Services, Inc., I-20 Corridor Properties, LLC, Penny Realty, Inc., Garrett Manufacturing, LLC, Admar International, Inc., PEJJ, LLC, Rayville Manufacturing, LLC, Luv N' Care Holdings, LLC, HHHII, LLC, Nuby Asia Pacific, Ltd., Talbot's Pharmaceuticals

Family Products, LLC, Tri-H Partners, LLC, Jud Realty, Inc., DeSiard Investment Properties, LLC, Fairytail, LLC, French Acadian Homes, LLC, Rapid Transit, LLC, Sherrouse Plantation, LLC, Stonebridge Estates, LLC, The Brandy House, LLC, Zodiac Stone, LLC, Jeff Lahasky, and Tyler Goldenberg, seek review of the trial court's June 11, 2026 oral ruling (later memorialized in a written order signed August 14, 2026), denying in part, Applicants' motion to compel David Jack Hakim to answer deposition questions regarding the date(s) of any attorney-client relationship he had with Attorney Alex Spiro and the timing and identification of any other attorneys who were contacted about taking on the case prior to current counsel. Upon review, we find the trial court abused its discretion in denying the subject portion of Applicants' motion to compel. The attorney-client privilege does not extend to the fact of representation. State v. Pike, 343 So. 2d 1388 (La. 1977). In this matter, Applicants are not seeking information regarding confidential communications between David Jack Hakim and his attorney or any prior attorneys, but rather factual information such as names and dates. We find that this information is not protected by the attorney-client privilege and is also relevant for purposes of either a prescription defense or the merits of the case. Accordingly, the writ is granted and the trial court's ruling denying the motion in part is reversed. For compliance with this Order, this matter is remanded to the trial court for further proceedings.
